Important information

Duty of Disclosure

You have a duty to disclose to us, whether asked for or not, all information that might influence a prudent insurer's decision to offer you insurance cover and if so, on what terms and/or premium ("material information"). This duty exists prior to the inception, renewal or variation of your policy. Failure to disclose all material information may result in your policy being avoided. This means your policy will be deemed never to have existed and any claims will not be payable. If you have any doubt as to whether a fact is material then it should be disclosed.
