The effect of this declaration

Prior to the inception of this policy you are under a duty to disclose all material information to us, whether asked for or not. Information is material if it might influence a prudent insurer's decision to offer you insurance and if so, on what terms and/or premium.

The information sought by this declaration is material information. Failure to disclose all material information, or providing incorrect or incomplete material information, may result in:

- (a) your policy being avoided which means your policy will be deemed never to have existed and any claims will not be payable; or
- (b) all or part of any claim made under this policy being declined; and/or
- (c) your policy being cancelled.

If you have any doubt as to whether any declaration is correct or fact is material then please discuss this with us.
